

Upcoming Third Thursday Programs

The Third Thursday is a series of programs designed for the Smyrna Library's adult community. Unless otherwise noted, all programs are in the Library's downstairs meeting room.

Thursday, January 20 at 12:30 PM: More than Petticoats with Sara Hines Martin

Author Sara Hines Martin will read from, discuss, and sign her book, More Than Petticoats - Remarkable Georgia Women. In her book, Martin examines the determination of fourteen resourceful women, all of whom rebelled against the strict social codes of the turn-of-the-20th-century American South. The book includes Margaret Mitchell, author of the world's most beloved novel; "Ma" Rainey, known as the "Mother of the Blues"; Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the Girl Scouts; and more.

Martin has master's degrees in religious education and counseling and her own private counseling practice. She has lived in two Third World countries and traveled extensively. A resident of suburban Atlanta, she is also the author of Walking Atlanta, and has been writing professionally for 44 years.

Thursday, February 17 at 7:30 PM: Loving Mr. Lincoln with M. Kay duPont

Author M. Kay duPont will read from, discuss, and sign her book, Loving Mr. Lincoln: The Personal Diaries of Mary Todd Lincoln. Winner of the 2003 Georgia Writers Association Fiction Award, this work of historical fiction is based on the premise that Mary Todd Lincoln's diaries were discovered in an old trunk purchased at a flea market.

Called "beautifully written, captivating historical fiction," duPont's book presents Mary Lincoln, in her "own words" - her life, love, and daily struggles with Abraham in their 24 years together. The 16th First Lady will capture your attention and your heart.

Thursday, March 17 at 7:30 PM: St. Patrick's Day Cooking Demo with Personal Chef Mark Milliron

Join Smyrna's own Chef Mark Milliron, CSC (certified sous chef), as he whips up a St. Patty's Day treat for the Friends.

Mark Milliron has been cooking for 20 years. He is a Culinary Institute of America graduate and the founder of Dining In, where he provides personalized multi-course meals, prepared and served in your home.

For more information about Chef Milliron and Dining In, go to www.diningin.us.

Thank You's...

To these volunteers who answered our calls for help. There are plenty of opportunities for you to get involved; see our Help Wanted section on page 10 for more information.

eBay Book Auctions an Early Success

Thank you Manuela Williams, our new eBay bookseller! The Friends occasionally receive books through donations that are more valuable than the book sale prices. Manuela raised $130 for one set of books and has sold several other books for the Friends.

Phonetree Manager

Thank Joan Stuart for answering the call to volunteer to be responsible for the Phonetree. This is a great help to the Friends communication system and also to the President, Linda Evans.
