

Smyrna Reading Group

The books are generally available at the Library front desk.

The discussion group meets the first Tuesday of every month at 7:30PM in the Smyrna Library Conference Room.

Everyone is welcome to attend.

January 4: Readings from Murder Goes South Authors

We will discuss books by these mystery writers: Carolyn Haines, Beverly Connor, E. Joan Sims, Brandon Massey, Steve Brown, Cheryl Ritzel, and Cathy Pickens. For more information about the authors, see the previous page.

February 8: Drowning Ruth by Christina Schwarz

Troubled, overwhelmed and reeling from a failed romance, Amanda Starkey retreats to her family's farm on Nagawaukee Lake in Wisconsin seeking comfort and solace with her sister, Matilde and young niece Ruth. While there, a tragic accident claims the life of her sister.

Though Amanda won't talk about the accident that took her sister's life, she raises Matilde's daughter with a fierce, tenacious love. But what really happen that cold dark night when Matilde drowned in the frozen waters of Nagawaukee Lake?

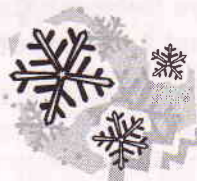

March 8: The Five People You Meet in Heaven by Mitch Albom

Eddie has spent most of his life as a maintenance man at the Ruby Pier Amusement Park. He feels he has accomplished nothing in his 8 years on earth. Eddie is killed trying to save the life of a young girl when a ride at the park malfunctions. Eddie waked up in heaven and meets the most surprising array of people who help him understand the meaning of his life.

April 5: Poetry

In recognition of National Poetry Month, we will be reading our favorite poets.
