

UPSTAIRS ...ART GALLERY & DISPLAY CASES

THE ART GALLERY

September thru October:
"A Life in Pictures"

The Art Gallery will feature selected photographs from the collection of talented photographer Tom Kells.

November 1
through December 14:
"The Drawing Board"

A beautiful display of color pencil drawings will grace the walls of the library as talented artist Carol Sorenson shares her work with the Smyrna community.

DISPLAY CASES

September thru October:
Origami

Origami is the Japanese art of paper folding and the display cases will feature Origami Paper Christmas Trees by local artist, Sachiko Kogure.

November 1 thru November 30

The highlight of the display cases will be the beautifully crafted wooden toys of Les McEwing. Incidentally, when the display ends, Les plans to donate the toys to the Friends.

Did You Know? @ the Library

Into the Stacks...

On hand, the Smyrna Public Library has back copies of over twenty different newspapers including the AJC, New York Times, USA Today, and The Wall Street Journal.

Need a back copy of Time Magazine? No problem. You can find back issues of Newsweek, National Geographic, Vogue, Traveler, and many other popular magazines.

The stacks are located upstairs in the Reference Section, just to the left of the Internet computers. Have fun browsing!!
