

NEW AND NEWS

Tara's Tidbits

by Tara Hand

TOM AIKEN makes and repairs the wooden toys in the Children's Room. He was born in the town of Ashburn in Southern Georgia and employed as a mechanical engineer at Lockheed. He still continues his wood hobby at Smyrna as well as the Vinings and Lewis branches of Cobb County Libraries. Check out the wooden black cats over one of the doors in the Children's section at Smyrna Library.

DELLA BOYD will be 80 in September. She was born in Rome, Georgia where she learned tatting from her mother. Her daughter shared the ownership of a cross-stitch craft shop. Della is a charter member of the Greater Atlanta Basket Guild. Membership is $35 with monthly meetings on the 3rd Wednesday night at Lower Roswell Marietta Library. Contact Nancy Skinner at 770-426-8955 with questions about joining the class. Other classes with Della will be in January with the ELM Program. Baskets and gourds are on display at the second floor of Smyrna Library through August 31 and at Windy Hill Senior Center.

SOMETHING NEW!

Check out the display case near the stairs in the library lobby! Thanks to our webmaster, Jeff Jones, it contains lots of information on FOSL, including a 90-day events calendar for ALL FOSL events, current recommended reading list, updated informational bulletin board, and screenshots of FOSL websites, just to name a few.

NEW BOOK GROUP!

Coffee and a good book! The Friends have formed a new daytime reading group—every 4th Monday of the month. The group will meet in the upstairs meeting room. The next meeting will be October 23, 2006 at 10:00 am. For questions for further information, please contact Linda Evans at www.evanslw@earthlink.net or call (770)-436-8062

Did You Know?

@ The Smyrna Library

We have an extensive collection of books on the Military. Both students and history buffs alike will find a treasure trove of information on the topic.
