

Reading Group Selections @ 7:30 p.m.

April 4, 2006

In recognition of National Poetry Month, Professor Emeritus David Jones of Kennesaw University will read from the works of beloved American poet, Emily Dickinson in the downstairs meeting room.

May 2, 2006

MISS JULIA MEETS HER MATCH by Ann Ross

70-something, widowed, well-to-do Miss Julia has a houseful of problems. First, she has invited her late husband's mistress, Hazel Marie, and son, Little Lloyd to live with her. Next, her new beau, Sam Murdoch is pressuring her to marry him. Then, there's her housekeeper's precocious 5-year-old great granddaughter. And to top it off there's a rumor that another of her late husband's paramours is in town. With so many problems has Miss Julia finally met her match?

June 6, 2006

ME TALK PRETTY ONE DAY by David Sedaris

Sedaris draws on the poignant comedy of his peculiar North Carolina childhood, his unusual career path and his time spent in France to create this uproariously funny autobiography. The title is mined from his English translation of how he and his fellow students of French in Paris mangled the Gallic language.

July 11, 2006

GETTING MOTHER'S BODY by Susan-Lori Parks

Sixteen, pregnant and in desperate need of money, Billy Beede is convince her only salvation is a trip from Texas to Arizona to claim jewels owned by her late mother. But Billy has three obstacles to overcome: 1) She has absolutely no money, 2) no way to get there, and 3) she has to dig up her mother's grave to claim the jewels since they were buried with her mother. How Billy solves her problems makes for a very funny read.

SUGGESTED READING

Death Dance by Linda Fairstein

Faithless by Karin Slaughter

The Forgotten Man by Robert Crais

Freshwater Road by Denise Nicholas

Gotham Diaries by Tony L. Lee & Crystal M. Anthony

Joplin's Ghost by Tannavarive Due

The Judgement of Paris by Ross King

At All Costs by David Weber

At Canaan's Edge by Taylor Branch

Dear Senator: A Daughter's Memoir by Essie Mae Washington

Death Dance by Linda Fairstein

Faithless by Karin Slaughter

The Forgotten Man by Robert Crais

Freshwater Road by Denise Nicholas

Gotham Diaries by Tony L. Lee & Crystal M. Anthony

The Judgement of Paris by Ross King

The Lighthouse by P. D. James

The Third Secret by Steve Berry

The Wave by Walter Mosley